Greg,

Did you notice that the conservatives, in the persons of Justices Scalia, Rehnquist and Thomas, have opened ground from which we can work UP to the very top, the essential flaw that infects subsequent levels of society: the concentration of economic power in just a few hands.

The road to serfdom, whether from the left or the right, is paved with good intentions but the greater the concentration of wealth and/or political power, the greater is the loss of freedom suffered by the People. Its a simple equation. As George Orwell might say, "Money is the great equalizer, but some are more equalized than others."

These good Justices opined, in the Colorado gay case, that some people live in "disproportionate numbers in certain communities, have high disposable income and possess political power much greater than their numbers," a situation the Justices view negatively.

If folks that conservative can see that clearly, then We the People have Hope that economic reform is surely coming, and that it will start at the VERY top.
