And lets not forget 4/19/93 when the pigs showed their hand.

And lets not forget April 19th 1775 when we started giving the pigs what they had coming.

The undisciplined militias you refer to were created as adjuncts to the British Army, to help it against Indians and French.

Never did the British think they'd be turned against them and most militias remained loyal to Britain. The ones that were less disciplined (lele brainwashed) fought for our freedom but it was the regular Continental Army that did the real work.

Other dates We the People need to rember: 2/15/98, sinking of Maine, 4/4/68 assassination of Dr. King, 10/2/68 massacre at Tlateloco Square Mexico City, 6/4/70 massacre at Kent State, 6/4/89 massacre at Tiananmen Square.

The Federal government sure didn't mind that last one as evidenced by the secret mission of President Wimp's top national security advisers just two months later to tell the dictators all was well.

When are we going to realize the U.S. government is no longer on the side of the American People. We the People NEED militias for self defense, the same kind called for by Minister Farrakhan.

You worry me guy! I'll stick with the idea of voting. If I were you, I would think twice before donning the warriors garb, it isn't all it is cracked up to be.

Tho' I'm not sure what you are referencing (in manner) of 4/19/93. your reference to 1775 points to the disarmament of the citizens of America by the Brits. I don't get the corealation here. Wannanaelp me out with it?
