The nuts don't fall far from the tree. White Plains is in the neighborhood of the world headquarters of IBM (which shares ownership of Prodigy with Sears.)

They're all big business/Rockefeller/Wall Street types so of course they're gonna run this "service" in ways that will benefit themselves.

The "national views" you speak of are just what this Eastern Elite want us to think. Thats the power of modern media. Obtrusive, overwhelming and UNAVOIDABLE.
