Some of the folks from the Goldwater wing of the Republican Party may claim Gov Nelson Rockefeller was a radical leftist but in actuality he was one of the leaders of the ruling class. The ruling class, you may recall, is what radical leftists opposed back in the good old days when they were honest, sincere and courageous.

Then Rockefeller signed the first abortion law and things began to change. We saw the rise of the femi-nazis, (a wolf in sheeps' clothing if there ever was one,) and we witnessed the American Way of Genocide begin to take shape. The femi-nazis were/are just a front for the ruling class which needs to make abortion "respectable" and keep down the population of "undesirables" by killing them off in a LEGAL and- most importantly- publicly acceptable manner.

Marching Blacks and Hispanics and poor whites off to gas chambers, even to the strains of Wagner, just won't make it in image conscious America, especially after all the bad publicity from the Holocaust. The ruling class needed a way to make the current genocide seem socially acceptable and even noble. They had to make middle and upper middle class people willing to support and participate in this genocide and to serve as an example for the lower classes to follow. Through either ignorance or treachery the radical-leftists joined that movement and thus began the decline of their own much larger Movement, and so they thus played into the agenda of the ruling class. Forsaking the well-being of the Masses in order to promote a doctrine of self-centered hedonism merely opened the door to the infamous orgy of greed that became the hallmark of the new class of Yuppies.

Pursuit of wealth and "keeping up with the Joneses" waylaid the best and the brightest of the Boom Generation with all their Sixties' Radicalism into the sterile wasteland of suburban Yuppiedom. Knowing that the stodgy Catholics and the bigoted Born-Againists would oppose abortion, the ruling class cynically played these groups against the Yuppies' exaggerated sense of self-worth. Because the Yuppies were intelligent and would attain positions of influence in society, the ruling class was able to use this Yuppie "superiority" against the huddled Catholic and Evangelical Masses.

Everytime someone from the Masses spoke or wrote against abortion the Yuppies could be counted on to bleat mindless drivel about the separation of church and state, as if the First Amendment was meant to protect the State from the People! Religious folk are People too and have every right to participate in the political system as they see fit, either individually or in group combinations. But the ruling class refuses to admit this and uses the abortion issue as a wedge to keep Americans apart and to reinforce the supposed superiority of their main puppet, the Yuppies.

Yuppies, in private, regard abortion as just another way to keep their taxes down. Fewer undesirable Blacks, Hispanics and poor whites mean less social costs in terms of schooling and health care, crime, unemployment and welfare. ESPECIALLY welfare! (There's a reason why welfare is such a big issue this election year: by waffling on abortion AND attacking welfare, Bob Dole is trying to pry many of the Yuppies who are Democrats away from Clinton.) Yuppies will do ANYTHING to pad their lifestyles but know enough to keep mum about their true abortion motives. As a result of their sell-out
