The Soviet Union "toppled under its own weight," (with a little shove from Ronald Reagan) so why not continue this successful Reagan Doctrine viz China? The courage and integrity of President Reagan helped rid the world of one half of communist tyranny, but I don't think Dole has what it takes, in the guts department, to stand up to Beijing and continue the Reagan legacy. He thinks the sell-outs and the wimp-outs under Nixon and Bush are the epitomes of high Statecraft and has sunk up to his jowls in debt to Wall Street. Forget Freedom in a Dole Administration, but place your bets on profit. Thats where his loyalty lies. And when the Future wearily asks "Who lost Russia, who abandoned the Reagan Doctrine, History will starkly answer: "DOLE and his greedy cronies on Wall Street."

Great Britain's agreement with China signed around 100 years ago, expires next year. They or we can either be in violation of the contract etc., or China would probably fight. Hong Kong is too valuable to the Chinese to disrupt things much, and our chances of militarily defending Hong Kong in any type of a land war are slim and none. The other alternative is total war, and I don't think you would find much sentiment for that. China is a very very old society, and I think eventually the totalian government will crumble under it's own weight. When I don't know.

Ron, there are plenty of good folks in America, but in politics it is the scum, not the cream, that rises to the top.

A "Sense of the Congress" Resolution calling for freedom for Hong Kong would be just the latest of a long line of similar Resolutions advocating freedom for oppressed Peoples.

In the past there have been Resolutions against communist dictatorships in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, East Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania and now all these places are free.

The U.S. government sent weapons to "terrorists" in Angola, Nicaragua and Afghanistan and we ourselves killed communists in Korea, Vietnam and Grenada.
In other words, Murray, over the past 50 years we have left no stone unturned in our efforts to bring freedom to the world's oppressed, and Congress, historically, has been in the forefront of that nobel movement.

Yet today 6,000,000 free People are in mortal danger of losing that freedom and no-one in Congress, not Dole the "leader," not Gingrich the ideologue, not the freshman class (every one of whom came of political age during the era of the Reagan Doctrine,) has raised a voice in protest, much less a Resolution. This is unprecedented in American History! At the very moment of our triumph over the Soviets we have surrendered to the Chinese. Who'd have thought!

Never before have we voluntarily given up anybody to the communists but come July 1, 1997 the silver platter will be brimming with capitalists and the communists will be burping with pleasure.

And they didn't even have to use an army!

Britain, (never a Nation to shrink from using Peoples as pawns,) simply signed on the dotted line and sealed the fate of the six million, and congress meekly acquiesced with the U.S. Hong Kong Act of 1992. They didn't protest the sell-out, they APPROVED it. That's how far we've fallen!

Does the congress have the integrity and the courage to call upon the People of Hong Kong to do the same thing we did in 1776 and Declare Independence from Britain BEFORE Beijing sits down to dine? I think not, especially with a coward like Dole up there.

I don't understand the Hong Kong deal, as why would we have any official say anyway? Great Britain's contract over Hong Kong with China is running out, and Hong Kong reverts back to China. I'm certainly not a fan of China's government, but I don't see where we had much say either way.

Dole indeed did us a great service 50 years ago, but, as the old saying goes, "What has he done for us lately?"

He supported the Bush policy of appeasement of the butchers of Beijing.

And worse, he was a co-sponsor of the U.S. Hong Kong Act of 1992 (S1731) signed by Bush that gives OFFICIAL U.S. government approval to the coming sell-out of the 6,000,000 freedom loving capitalists there that will occur 7/1/97.

58,000 young Americans died trying to save Asians from communist imperialism, but Dole (and Bush and Clinton) are AFRAID to stand up to Beijing even given the example of the stunning success of Reagan's hardline against the Soviets.

Instead, Hong Kong gets handed over on a silver platter.

And in case you haven't noticed, Dole supports restrictions on the freedom of speech on the Internet so perhaps We the People won't be able to be saying what we're saying around here much longer.

Dole sacrificed to keep us free but now he's in service to Wall Street.

The Republicans did plenty of selling out too:
They abandoned the family farmer in favor of agri-business.
They abandoned Main Street to get money from Wall Street.
They abandoned six million freedom loving capitalists of Hong Kong to make big profits from dealing with murdering communists in Beijing.

An Independent run by Pat could win as he could garner the votes of financially threatened working class Democrats and Republican small business-people who are being financially raped by stateless and disloyal multi-national corporations.
And a pro-life movement sold out by Dole will be Pat's, 100%

Hey, you can call the maneuvers backhanded and wrong but don't call Dole a coward, the man lost the usage of his right arm fighting for our freedom to be saying what we're saying around here. And anyway, Dole's won primaries on his own, without New York's funky balloting rule system. Dole would have won in New York no matter what, Forbes just doesn't have the appeal of the voters and Buchanan doesn't have enough pull in a moderate to liberal state like New York.

Guess who's reduced to hiding behind politician's skirts in New York? Doesn't have the nerve to compete fairly in NY's Republican primary. Instead gets political hacks to tailor the rules to his measurements, and his alone.

It took a Federal judge to get Forbes on the ballot. It took a Herculean effort to get Pat on in 13 C.D.'s. It will take more than a smoke-filled-room deal for Dole to beat Clinton. If Dole's so afraid of taking on the pygmy pack of his own party how will he face down Clinton's snarling Doberman? New York's Republican primary rules were deliberately warped by Dole ally D'A**hole and Governor Puppetaki for the sole purpose of making a weak candidate appear mighty.

But how mighty can one be who stays so close to New York butts?

We need a leader, not a sniffer!
